RE: Revisions to School Calendar/Status of Mobile Dental Unit

BURTON DUPUIS
PRESIDENT

Dear Parents and School Board Employees,

RUSSEL C. FOTI
VICE PRESIDENT

During the Wednesday, February 1, 2017 St. Martin Parish School Board meeting, the Board approved a revision to the 2016-2017 school calendar to allow the week of February 27-March 3, 2017 as a full week where students are not required to attend school. This letter is to serve as official notification that students do not attend school on Monday, February 27 through Friday, March 3.

STEVE FUSELIER

School Board employees do not report to work on Monday, February 27-Wednesday, March 1; however, all employees are to report to work on Thursday, March 2, and Friday, March 3. Mandated professional development activities are scheduled.

On another note, I received notification from Mr. Roderick C. Campbell, Executive Director of the Iberia Comprehensive Community Health Center, that Monica Kincade, DDS, will be leaving the Iberia Comprehensive Health Center effective February 20, 2017. Due to her departure, services with the Mobile Dental Unit will be discontinued until a replacement is found. However, Mr. Campbell did indicate that the Iberia Comprehensive Health Center would like to "continue caring for the dental needs of the students and will be available to see your children at the St. Martin Parish Community Health Center located at 317 Denier Street in St. Martinville, LA 70582."

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Lottie P. Beebe, Ed. D., Superintendent
St. Martin Parish Public Schools
